. S. FORCE LANDS

With the American troops landed at Archangel to back up allied marines and United States sailors altoday that region, it was held here today that the proposed Bolsheviki thrust in the north will be futile. Germany has done her utmost to stir the Bolsheviki to make a drive in northern Russia, even getting a trially providing for such an effort. On the other hand, there have been indications that the allies expected to forestall such a movement by taking the initiative and moving southward. The number or nature of the new troops is not revealed, but it is assumed that they came from English or French camps and are well seasoned. Press dispatches indicate that they are from the northern tier of States, and that many of them can speak Russian, thus combining the military with the propaganda offen-

Unofficial reports that the Bolsheviki had seized Consul Poole, of Moscow, came as no surprise here. Poole has been staying bravely on at Moscow as moral support for his detained allied colleagues. Looting Russia.

Germany has launched a well-planned campaign to strip Russia of all obtainable loot before she is combelled to retreat to her own frontiers by the entente military pressure on the west front and in the east, diplomats here declare.

The German scheme in Russia has suddenly changed with the unexpected reversal of Teuton military fortunes, it is asserted, and henceforth her policy to the east will be marked only by the speed and facility with which everything of value is pried loose from the various Russian fac-

The German Aim. The initial payment of the Russian war indemnity in the face of strong ornosition among Germans who steadfastly contended that the outrageous indemnity would wreck all hopes of permanent relations between Russia and Germany, is held to point strik-fingly to the evident German aim.

The recently negotiated supplements to the Brest-Litovsk peace and the readjustment of the German administration of Poland, the Baltic and other invaded Russian provinces, the latter step announced in neutral cables to entente embassies today, are beld to be strictly in line with the

JUGO-SLAVS WILL ASK RECOGNITION

Formal request for recognition of the southern Slavs now under Austro-Hungarian rule is soon to be made to the United States, it was learned today. Secretary of State Lansing reptly sounded informally on the pro-sal, has asked Jugo-Slav represenposal, has asked Jugo-Case in de-tatives here to state their case in de-

As the first step in granting this secognition, it is expected that those of the 750,000 routhern Slava in the Linked States who register for the new draft today will not be required to designate themselves as subjects of Austria-Hungary on their question-

BOHEMIANS FAVOR

The clergy of all Bohemian dio ceses have recognized the Czecho-Slovak national aspirations, according to advices from Berny.

The Neue Freie Presse has received a dispatch from Prague to the effect that the Bohemia clergy has joined to the solemn declaration of the Exech deputies and writers in favor of an independent Czecho-Slovak of an independent Czecho-Slovak plate. It is stated that Vienna news-papers are aroused by the stand and are demanding action against the churchmen. Entente diplomats see great significance in the step as demonstrating the increasing strength of the Bohemian national feeling.
